

T Level in Accounting.

Think Ahead

Help build the workforce of the future.

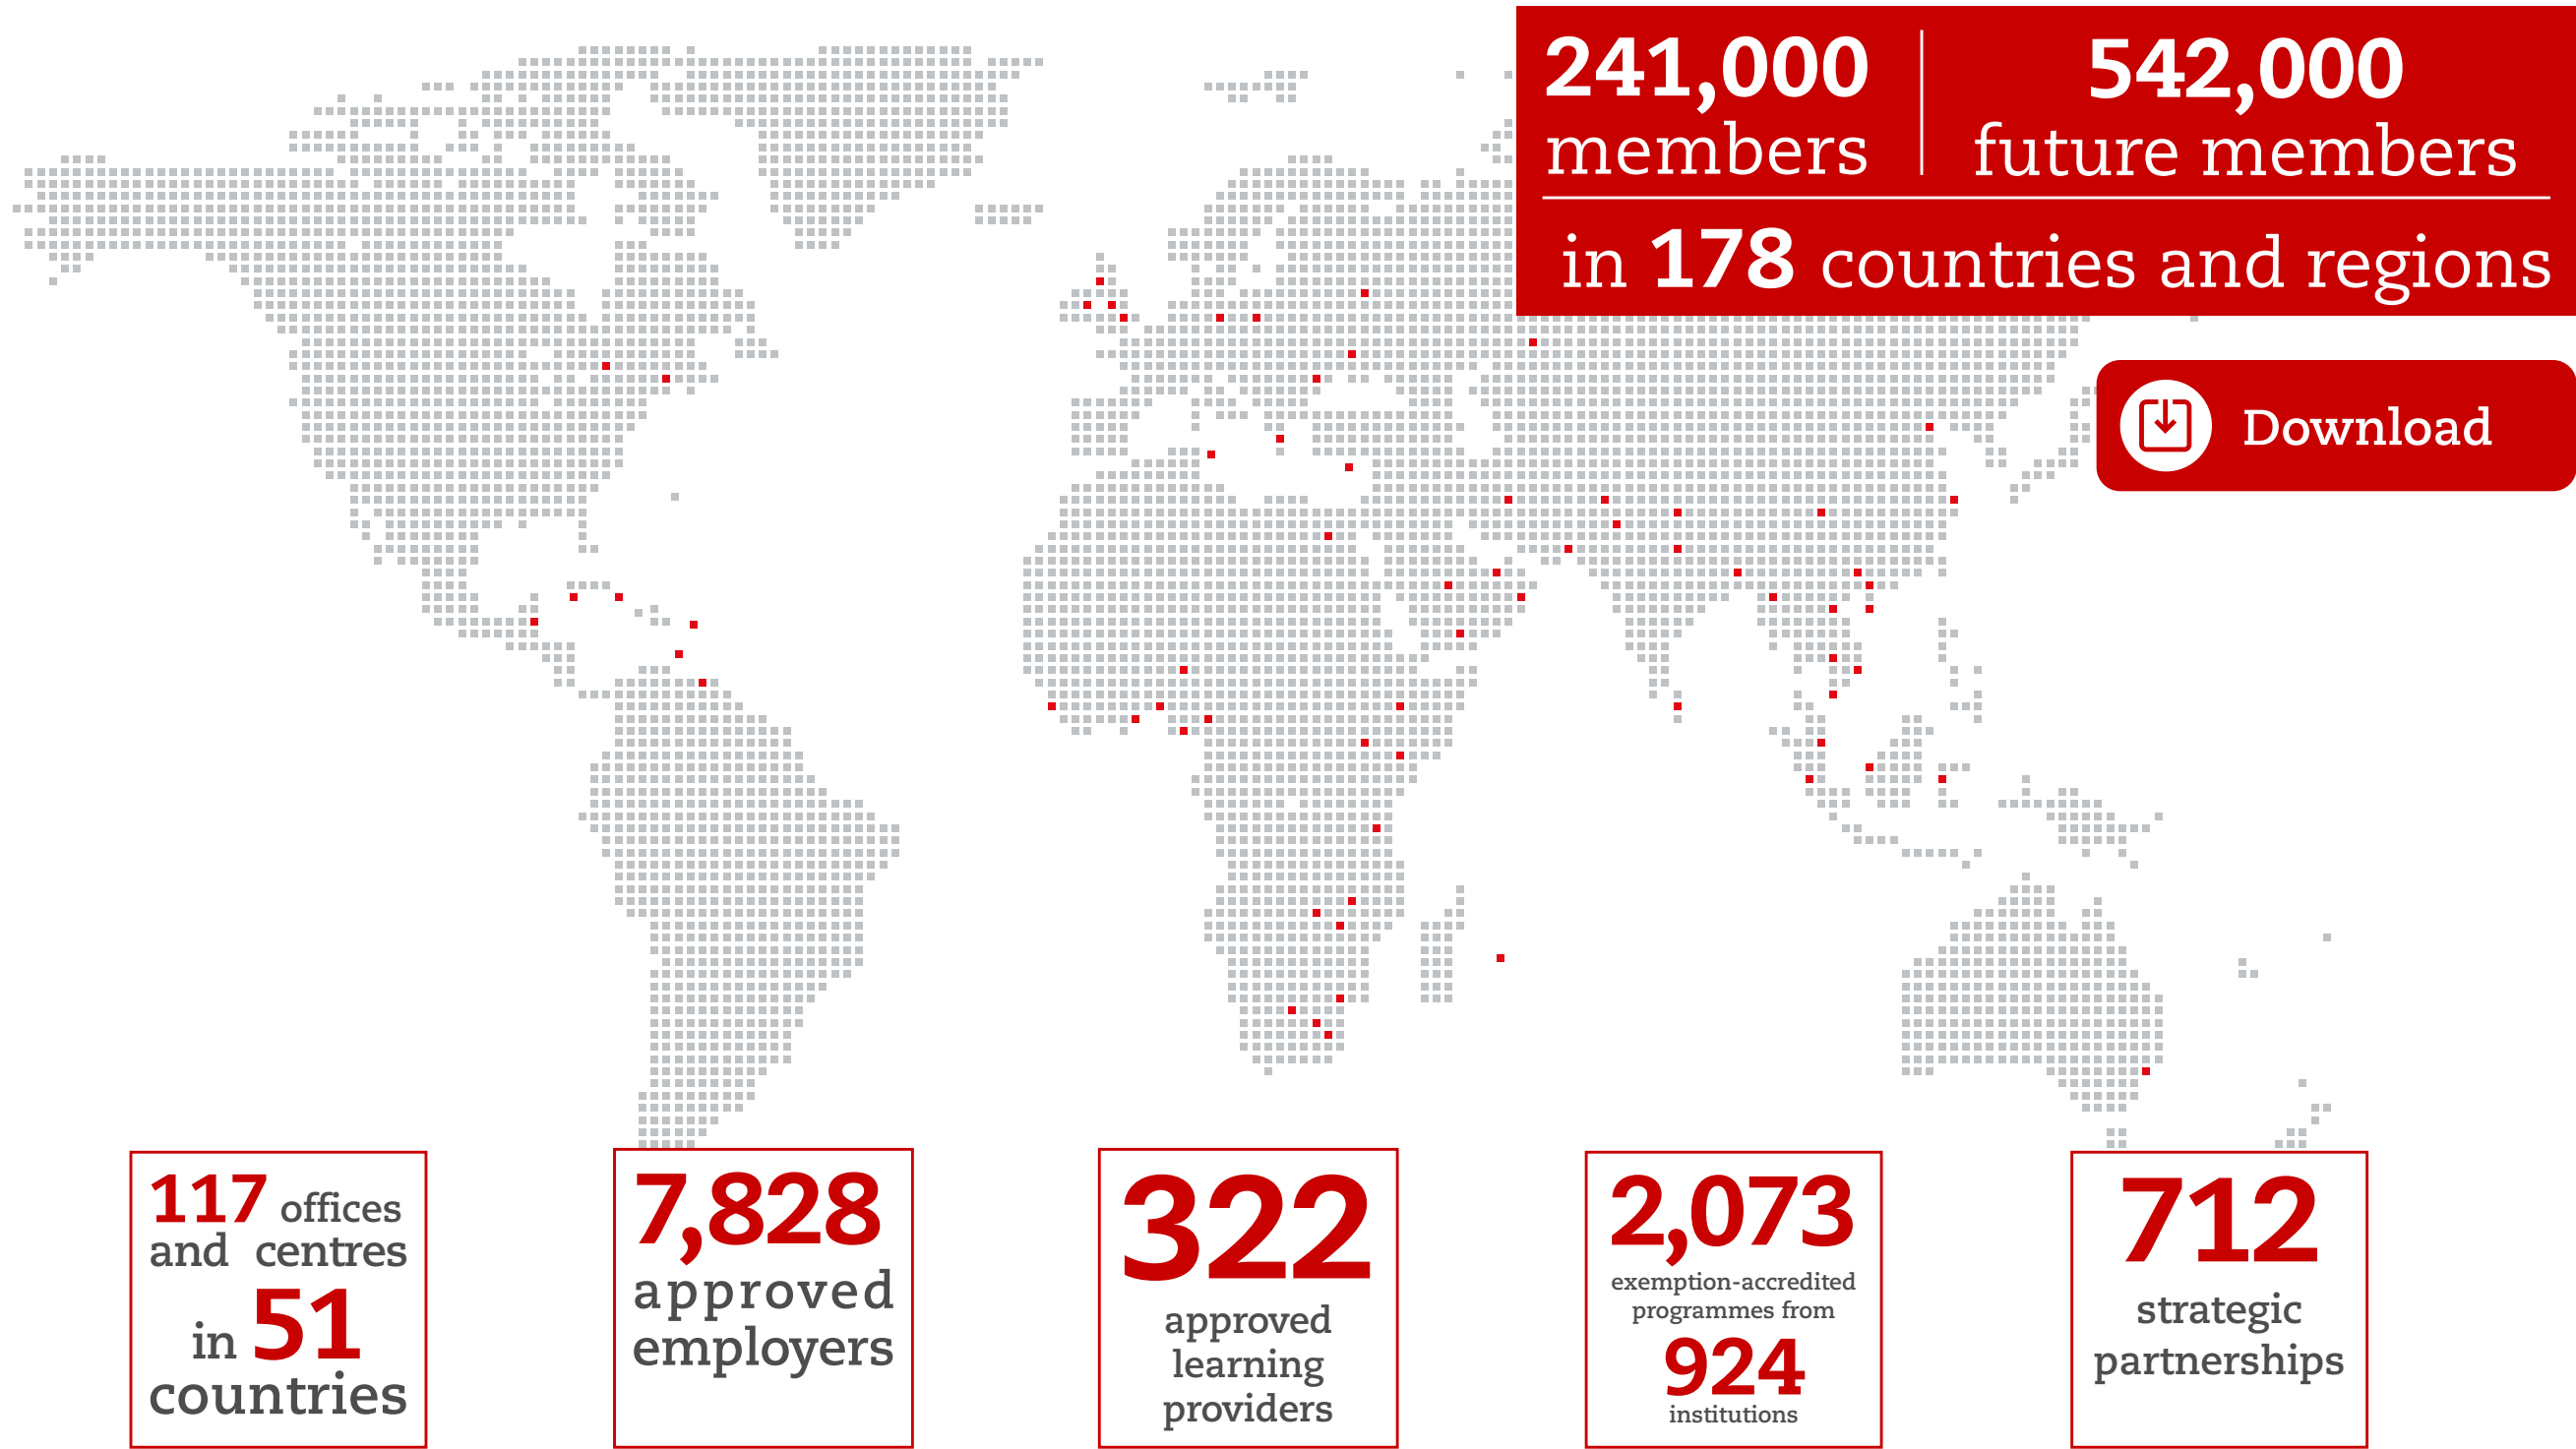

ABOUT ACCA.

As the world’s most forward-thinking accountancy body, our vision is to develop the accountancy profession the world needs.

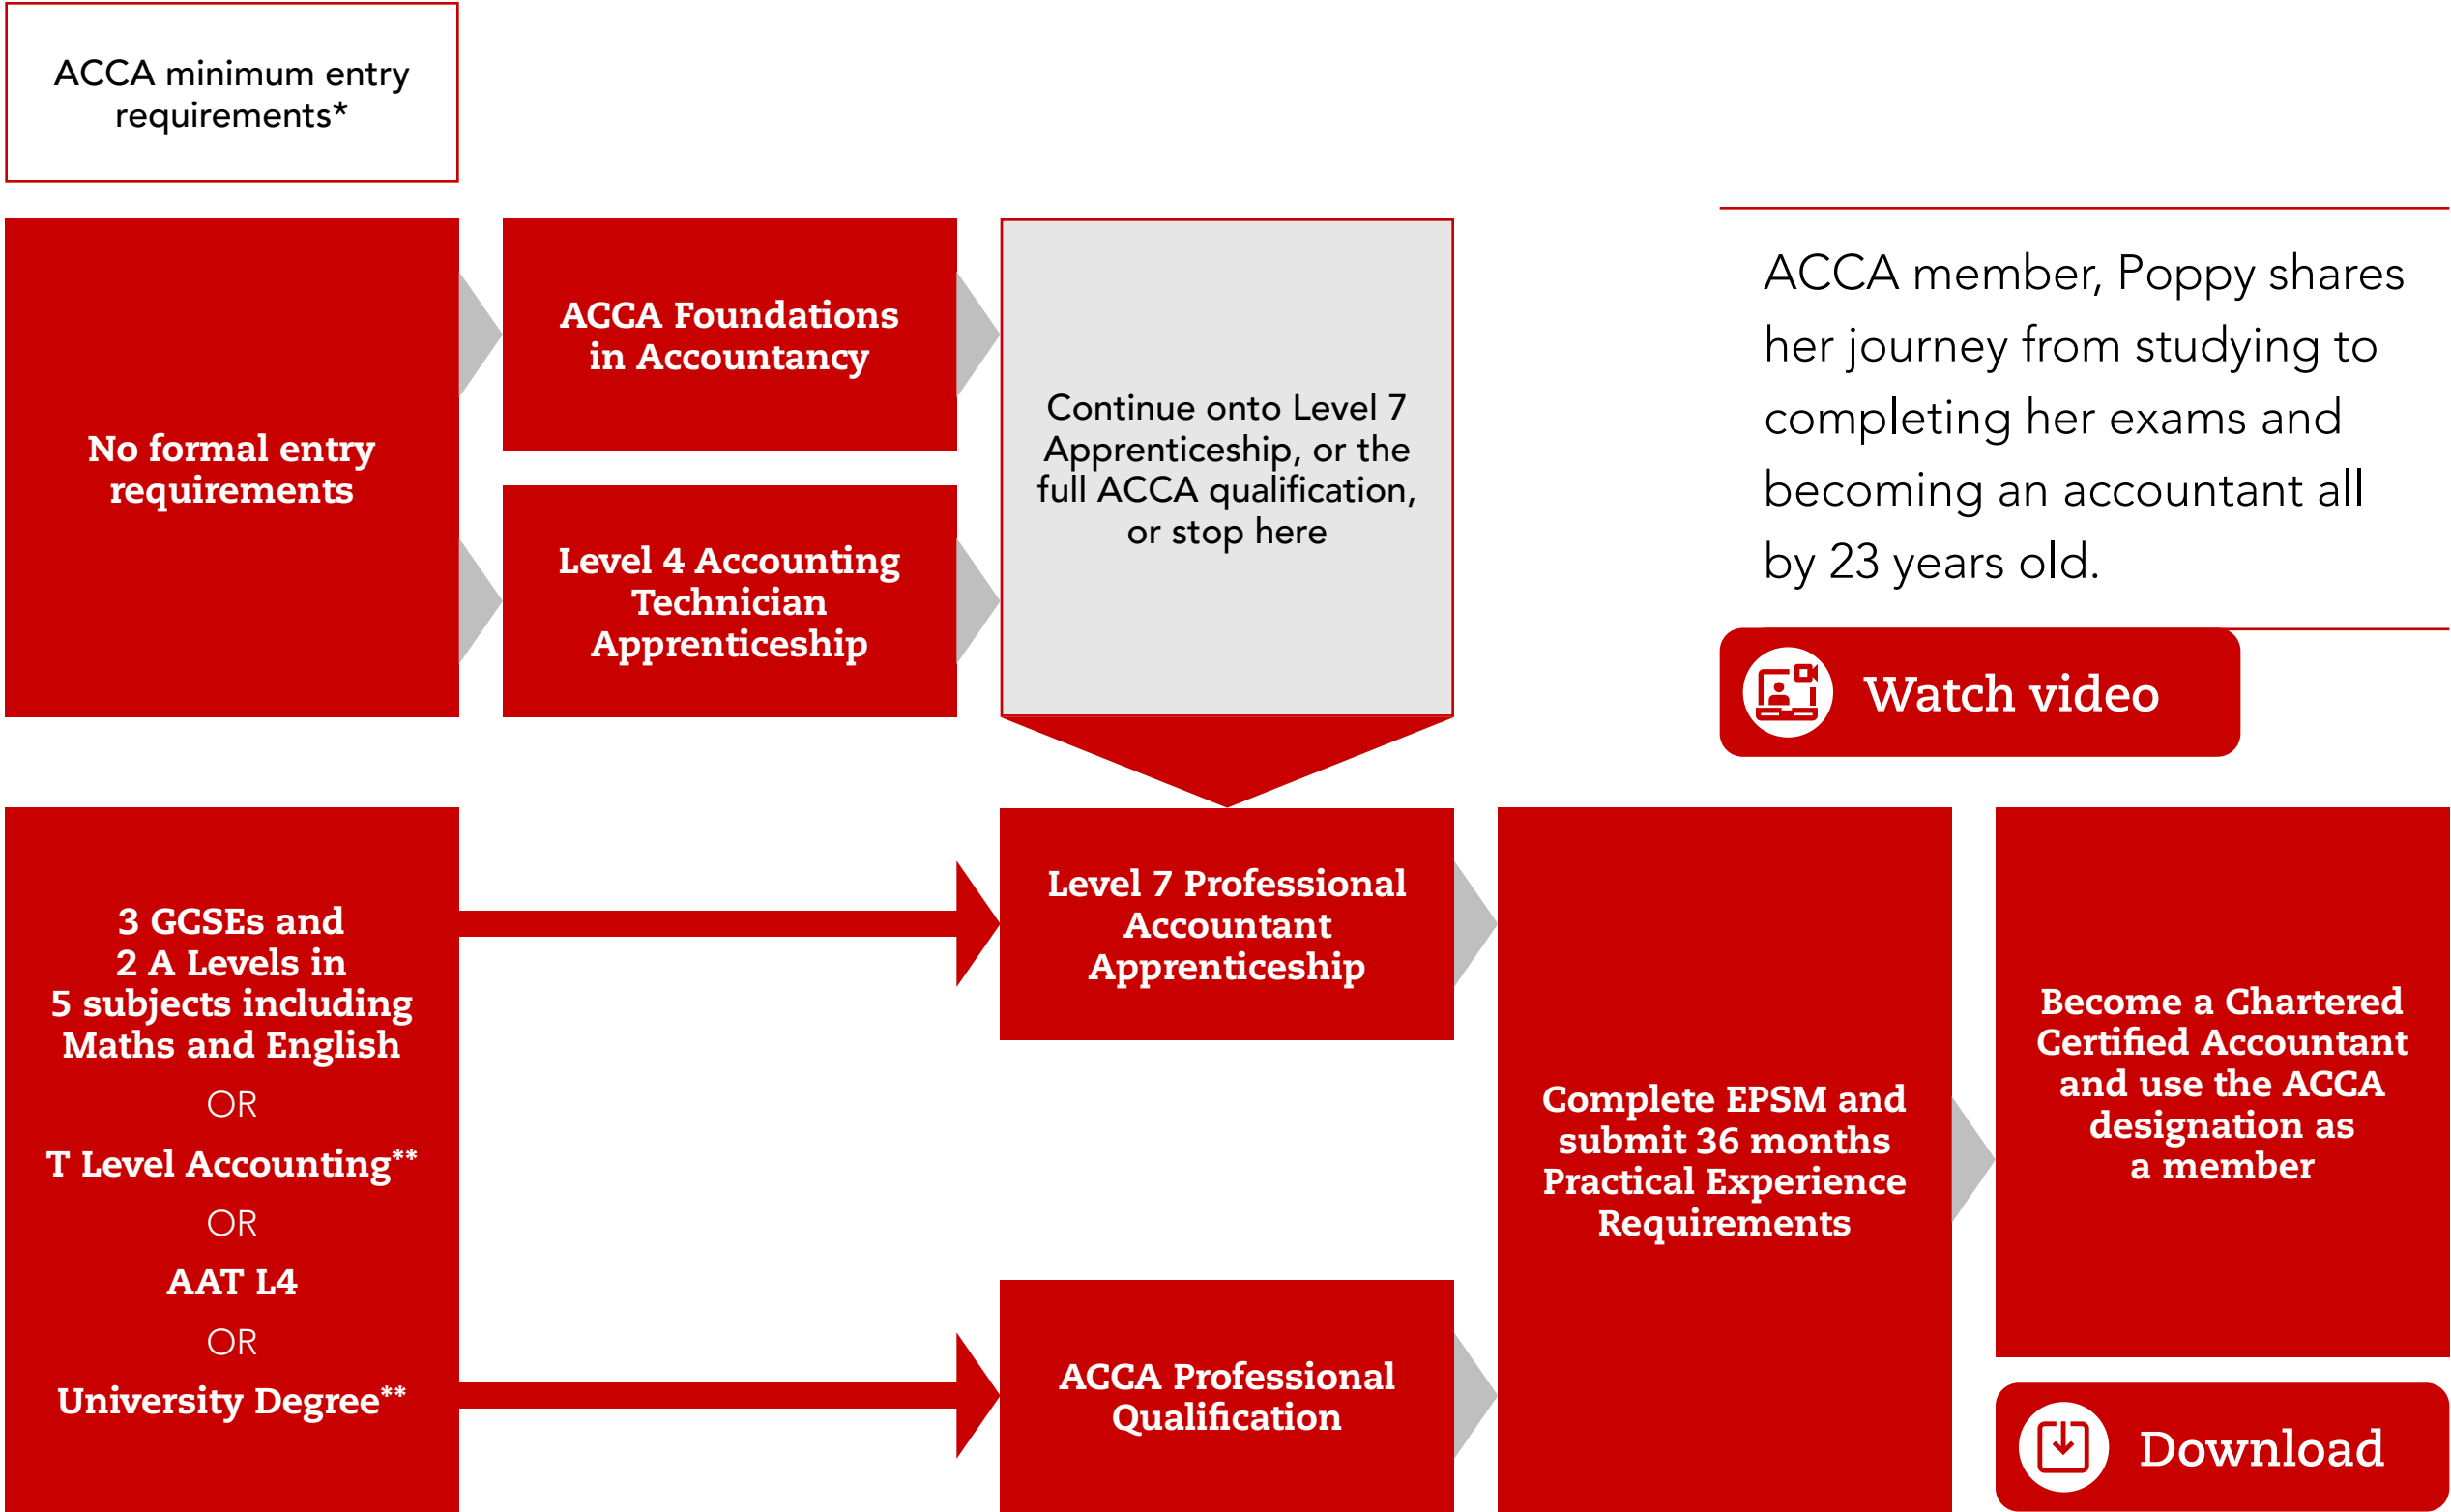

We offer everyone everywhere the opportunity to experience a rewarding career in accountancy, finance and management. Our qualifications and learning opportunities develop strategic business leaders and forward-thinking professionals with financial, business and digital expertise.

The T Level in accounting has been developed by Pearson in collaboration with ACCA and employers to create a qualification that covers the skills that finance professionals need and opens the door to a wide range of careers options.

THE JOURNEY TO MEMBERSHIP.

On completion of the T Level in Accounting students can choose to continue their journey and become a fully qualified chartered certified accountant through either the ACCA Qualification or an ACCA apprenticeship.

* For all UK apprenticeships, GCSE's in Maths and English Grade 4/C and above are required before passing through the End Point Assessment.
 Exemptions may be available.

SUPPORT FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS.

ACCA: Who are we and what do we do?

We have lots of resources to help you talk about ACCA and the accountancy profession to students and parents.

The future is unknown, but accountants will always be at the heart of organisations because good financial and business management will always be the lifeblood of successful businesses, charities, governments and economies. The role of accountants goes beyond financial numbers – they also explore and make decisions about the social, ethical and environmental impacts of organisations.

ACCA prepares its students and members for this digital future - prepare your future self for success by choosing to future-proof your career with ACCA.
